3 pages | 580 words

My name is Gelliza Z. Quiambao, and I am currently in college studying education. I was born on 12th of September year 1996, four o'clock in the afternoon, in Jose Payumo Memorial Hospital. My parents are Gilbert and Josephine and I have two brothers who are Gil Joseph and Gianni.

I started studying when I was three. My grandparents are the ones who served as my babysitter since my parents weren't home for work, so my granddad enrolled me in a Daycare Center. You may not believe this but my grandma told me that I always sleep and cry in school.

After that, my parents enrolled me in Kindergarten then to Elementary. I was only five years old when I was on the first grade. Had to say, I was the youngest but I'm subsequent. My elementary days are incredibly awesome. I gained many friends; I achieved honors and awards, academic and sports, specifically chess. It's been quite jaded studying six years on the same school but it's totally fine with me because I have friends to laugh with, have fun with, and learn with.

In 2008, I graduated from elementary and became a high school freshman in Bataan Peninsula State University. It's great that I found true friends that same year, and it's quite funny how I always wanted a sister and God gave me nine super cool and amazing friends that actually treated me like a sister. I had so much fun with them. We went hiking on a mountain. It's really unforgettable because we took a ride on a horse.

It's my sophomore year in 2009, and the best moment that I remembered back there is when we ditched class. Yeah, I know it's not a really good thing to do but, best moments come from worst ideas, right? We cleaned the faculty room as our punishment. We did it for three months.

In 2010, I fell in love with music. It's like, my world revolves around music. There's something about the songs that I can somehow relate myself into the lyrics. I learned so much from it. Also this year is when I fell in love with a boy. Honestly, it wasn't a pretty story. I fell deeply in love with him then when we broke up; it's like my worst nightmare ever. But I learned that maybe we're not really meant to be together. Then, I realized that the fact between 'boy love' and 'boy hate' is the belief that whatever happens, I'll be fine.

Good friends, competitive teachers and one wonderful family are the ones who mold me for who I am today. Everything good I have inside of me, I get from them. I experienced lots of challenges that test my skills and personality. All those challenges and problems that I've been through leaves a wonderful lesson. Good days gave me happiness, bad days gave me experiences, which are both essential to life. Success keeps me growing and failures make me humble.

Right now, I'm studying very...

The Quiet Trailblazer Mary Frances Early, 2021-09-15 The Quiet Trailblazer recounts Mary Frances Early's life from her childhood in Atlanta, her growing interest in music and her awakening to the injustices of racism in the Jim Crow South. Early carefully maps the road to her 1961 decision to apply to the master's program in music education at the University of Georgia, becoming one of only three African American students. With this personal journey, we are privy to her prolonged and difficult admission process, her experiences both troubling and hopeful while on the Athens campus and her historic graduation in 1962. Early shares fascinating new details of her regular conversations with civil rights icon Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. at Ebenezer Baptist Church in Atlanta. She also recounts her forty-eight years as a music educator in the state of Georgia, the Southeast and at the national level. She continued to blaze trails within the field and across professional associations. After Early earned her master's and specialist's degrees, she became an acclaimed Atlanta music educator, teaching music at segregated schools and later being promoted to music director of the entire school system. In 1981, Early became the first African American elected president of the Georgia Music Educators Association. After she retired from working in public schools in 1994, Early taught at Morehouse College and Spelman College and served as chair of the music department at Clark Atlanta University. Early details her welcome reconciliation with UGA, which had failed for decades to publicly recognize its first Black graduate. In 2018, she received the President's Medal, and her portrait is one of only two women's to hang in the Administration Building. Most recently, Early was honored by the naming of the College of Education in her honor.
