Emerging Voices Human Sciences Research Council, Education Policy Consortium (South Africa), 2005 This examination graphically illustrates the conditions that make dreams of a better life for all virtually unrealizable in rural areas of South Africa Through the voices of rural people themselves this study tells not only what the problems surrounding education are but also what can and should be done when the South African government launches its offensive against poverty in rural areas Rigorous and qualitative the text is an overview of the need of great numbers of people for the opportunities and capabilities that education can provide for their futures It also shows the existing situation of many impoverished populations worldwide and illustrates that poverty and inequality continue where such issues are not addressed The Youth Book David Barnard, 1997 The object of this publication is to provide youth as well as people and organizations involved and interested in youth related issues with a comprehensive source of information on South African young organizations and related relevant issues Finding Voice Kim Berman, 2017-12-22 A model for cultural activism and pedagogy through art and community engagement Beyond Memory Max Mojapelo, 2008 South Africa possesses one of the richest popular music traditions in the world from marabi to mbaqanga from boeremusiek to bubblegum from kwela to kwaito Yet the risk that future generations of South Africans will not know their musical roots is very real Of all the recordings made here since the 1930s thousands have been lost for ever for the powers that be never deemed them worthy of preservation And if one peruses the books that exist on South African popular music one still finds that their authors have on occasion jumped to conclusions that were not as foregone as they had assumed Yet the fault lies not with them rather in the fact that there has been precious little documentation in South Africa of who played what or who recorded what with whom and when This is true of all music making in this country though it is most striking in the musics of the black communities Beyond Memory Recording the History Moments and Memories of South African Music is an invaluable publication because it offers a first hand account of the South African music scene of the past decades from the pen of a man Max Thamagana Mojapelo who was situated in the very thick of things thanks to his job as a deejay at the South African Broadcasting Corporation This book astonishing for the breadth of its coverage is based on his diaries on interviews he conducted and on numerous other sources and we find in it not only the well known names of recent South African music but a countless host of others whose contribution must be recorded if we and future generations are to gain an accurate picture of South African music history of the late 20th and early 21st centuries The Secret Lives of Baba Segi's Wives Rotimi Babatunde, 2018-06-07 The Secret Lives of Baba Segi's Wives is a scandalous engrossing tale of sexual politics and family strife in modern day Nigeria Lola Shoneyin's bestselling novel bursts on to the stage in a vivid adaptation by Caine Award winning playwright Rotimi Babatunde Men are like yam you cut them how you like Baba Segi has three wives seven children and a mansion filled with riches But now he has his eyes on Bolanle a young university graduate wise to life's misfortunes When Bolanle responds to
